THE TRIP:

SAILING THE WHITE CONTINENT

Embark on a 25-day sailing expedition to Antarctica aboard a 53-foot yacht. Crossing the mighty Drake Passage, you'll face the raw force of the Southern Ocean on your way to the last great wilderness on Earth. Once there, the white continent reveals its breathtaking silence, towering glaciers, and abundant wildlife. Between moments of awe on deck, you'll plunge into the adventure with freediving and scuba diving in icy waters few have ever explored. This is not just a journey—it's a test of spirit, a rare chance to feel the edge of the world and discover it with every wave, every dive, every horizon.
